

The Biocidal Products Directive (98/8/EC)

Product Authorisation and Mutual Recognition

Build the Perfect Package to Fit Your Exact Requirements

Who are Exponent International?

- We are a highly skilled and enthusiastic team within one of the world's largest scientific and regulatory consultancies.
- We have extensive regulatory expertise gained from working in industry, as independent consultancies, in contract research organisations and as government regulators.
- This gives us a unique and valuable perspective on dealing with regulatory requirements and problem solving.

How can Exponent Help You?

- Whatever your needs, Exponent can help you to gain Product Authorisation and Mutual Recognition of your products in Europe.
- Exponent can provide as much or as little assistance as you need.
- We can offer a service that is complementary to your in-house expertise.
- We can build your bespoke package of services.
- All services can be costed separately or grouped variously, as required.
- Use us as a sounding board on potential courses of action and strategies.
- We can provide a 'neutral viewpoint' to obtain views on particular issues from the EU Regulatory Authorities without the need to disclose the compound of interest.

Whatever your requirements, we will work flexibly with you to help you meet your objectives in a cost-effective and timely manner.
